Ferdinand Rebula Epoca 2021

Ferdinand's wines are characterised by their finesse, elegance and pronounced minerality. The Epoca series of the estate are the wines that benefit from a slightly longer bottle maturation, although they are already particularly tasty when young.

This is an intense and complex, full-bodied white wine. This interpretation of rebula shows what phenomenal results can be achieved on the typical Opoka/marl soil of Goriska Brda. Aromas of white stone fruit, soft spiciness. In the mouth full, round, complex, mineral and a fine salinity.
